Quality Control of Export Consignments

2639. DR. YELAMANCHILI SIVAJI: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether his Ministry maintains any quality control on our export consignments; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI SALMAN KHURSHID): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) In exercise of the powers conferred under the Export (Quality Control & Inspection) Act, 1963, Ministry of Commerce have notified number of commodities in the discipline of Engineering, Food & Agricultural Products, Chemicals and Allied Products, Footwear and Footwear Components, Jute and Coir Products, etc., under the purview of Compulsory Pre-shipment Inspection. However, with a view to entrusting the responsibility of maintaining and satisfying foreign buyers' quality requirements, the system of compulsory pre-shipment inspection was reviewed and it had been streamlined as under:—

(i) Star Trading Houses, Trading Houses and Export Houses have been exempted from the purview of compulsory pre-shipment inspection of any commodity;

(ii) EPZ, FTZ and 100% EOUs have been exempted from the purview of compulsory pre-shipment inspection of any commodity;

(iii) Manufacturing/processing units approved by EIAs under the System of Inprocess Quality Control (IPQC) have been authorised to issue the statutory certificates of inspection by themselves;

(iv) Manufacturers/exporters of Engineering Products and Fish and Fishery Products, who attained the export of these products on an average level of Rs. 1.5 crores per annum during last 3 years and having competence of carrying out inspection by themselves, will be allowed self-certification facility i.e., these units may issue statutory certificate of inspection and need not obtain certificates from EIAs; and

(v) Compulsory pre-shipment inspection would not be necessary provided the exporter have a firm letter from the overseas buyer stating that the foreign
